Thillaisthanam Swami took avatharam in Karthikai Mrighasheersham. His poorvashrama Tirunamam was Neelameghachariar swami and was a vedic scholar of repute. Swami had his panchasamskaram done by 35th Srimadh Azhaghiasingar. Swami was an aradhakar at SriMatham and was fully conversant with SriVaishnava practises both Theory and Practical. Swami was an antharnga kainkaryapara to 38th Srimadh Azhaghiasingar and received Preksha Mantram from Him. Swami attained the Tirunamam of “Sri Sathakopa Ramanuja Yathindra Mahadesikan”. He went on Vijaya Yatra from Sethu to Himachalam enthraling devotees with upanyasams and enlightening people in religious practises, temple-building and in conducting Yagyams. Swami spent a long time at Prasanna Krishnaswami temple Tulasi Thottam-Bangalore. Swami organised the temple worship in this temple and installed the divyamangalamurthi of AdhiVan Sathakopan Swami. Swami served the cause of Sri Vaishnavism for 42 years continuously. Swami attained Paramapadam at SriRangam. Although swami did not ascend the Peetam of Sri Ahobila Muth as Azhaghiya singar, he is highly venerated in the Ahobila Muth tradition and Swami’s Brindavanam is at Sri Dasavatharan Sannidhi. Since the condition of the Brindavanam had deteriorated considerably Thillaisthanam Kainkarya Sabha, Bangalore has undertaken the renovation of Swami’s Brindavanam. In Bangalore in the Tulasi thota temple there is a sannidhi for this swami and his original padukas are still there. Also there is a utsava murthi of swami in the temple. The sishyas conduct regular utsavams and purapadu on his tirunakshkrams. Since the renovation work at Thillaisthanam swami’s brindavanam is in progress, Swami’s divyamangalamurthi (moolavar) is at present in Adhivan Sathakopan swami's sannidhi inside Sri Dasavatharan Sannidhi. Those who wish to be part of this kainkaryam can contact the above mentioned sabha.
