Thillaisthanam Swami was born in Karthigai Mrighashirsha to Dikshitar Seshadri Acharya. His family tree could be traced to the 24th Jeer of Sri Ahobila Muth. Swami's poorvashrama name was Neelameghacharya. He had upanayanam at the prescribed age of 7. Swami had pancha samskaram done by 35th Srimath Azhagiyasingar. He was deeply religious and studied Vedams, Tarkam, Mimasama etc. Swami studied under 35th Srimadh Azhagiasingar and became fully conversant with the practises of Sri Vaishnavism both theory and in Practice. Swami became an Aradhakar at Sri Matam.

Swami served as Antharanga Kainkaryapara to 38th Srimath Azhagiyasingar and received Preksha mantram from HH. On 30th September 1914 Swami donned the ochre robes and assumed the Tirunamam "Sri Sathakopa Ramanuja Mahadesikan" After becoming a sanyasi Swami travelled the length and breadth of India and propogated Sri Vaishnavam. He was an authority on Sasthras and would be consulted in every religious matter from building a temple, worship procedures, yagya conduction etc. His lectures left people spell-bound and made a deep impact on the listeners. Swami stayed for long periods at Prasanna krishna swami temple Tulasi Thottam, Bangalore. He organised the mode of worship at the temple and installed the divyamangalamurthi of AdiVan Sathakopa Yathindra Mahadesikan in the temple. Most of the shishyas of Bangalore belonging to Sri Ahobila Mutt are Swami's shishyas. Though not an Azhagiyasingar, Swami is honoured in the Ahobila Mutt tradition. On Swami's Thirunakshatram day let us remember the Mahan and be recepients of His grace.
